

prime prophecy

Biography

Founded by Martin Wilczek and former guitarist Peter Statkiewicz, Prime Prophecy is a 6 piece European metal outfit based in Brooklyn, New York. With penchant for writing infectious music and relatable narratives, the band is made up of Martin Wilczek(Vocals), Darek Pakula(Guitars), Tom Tworek(Keyboards), Konrad Ceremuga (Guitars), Andrew Maziarz (Bass) and Kris Niewiarowski(Drums).

Prime Prophecy is inspired by real life experiences which greatly influences them as musicians as well as their music. The band ingeniously presents a fresh new perspective with their unique brand of music consisting of a distinctive blend of multiple styles, reaching out to a plethora of different listeners from all walks of life. The resourceful members also have a unique innate competency to ingeniously put together idiosyncratic sounds and words, creating high aptitude word play and breathtaking music, all while maintaining a consistent brand. Apart from being a seasoned musicians, the band is also a finalist in the prestigious, Emergenza Festival, beating 120 different bands to reach the finals. Being avid music performers, the band have also performed live at various notable music venues in the east coast including venues within the tristate, Pennsylvania as well as Chicago. Prime Prophecy is looking forward to showcasing their dynamic live performance at many more venues regionally in the near future, to entertain and engage loyal fans.

With 3 full length albums (Perfection Finally Has Its Price, Dark Side of Heaven, and most recently, Borders of Infinity) Prime Prophecy is set to hit the music scene hard with their unique cinematic approach to songwriting. Currently focusing their attention on their 2 music videos for the lead singles (End of the Beginning & Memories From The Past ) listeners can expect a true music journey that challenges the listener to think deeply on each individual songs meanings and how they make up a much larger picture when combined.

Armed with big dreams and plenty of energy to spare, Prime Prophecy seeks to be a positive influence on the world and connect with like-minded individuals through their progressive symphonic metal music.

Connect

@primeprophecy

@primeprophecy

primeprophecy.com

Line Up

Vocals / Martin Wilczek

Guitars / Darek Pakula

Keyboards / Tom Tworek

Drums / Kris Niewiarowski

Guitars / Konrad Ceremuga

Bass / Andrew Maziarz

Highlights

- One of Prime Prophecy's main accomplishments was a final of the American edition of worldwide Emergenza Festival that took place at Webster Hall in New York City in 2010. The group had to compete against 120 other bands, winning their way to the final.
- In August 2011, the single, "Viking" was released. It was written for a professional, super heavyweight boxer, Mariusz Wach, who fought for a heavyweight championship title.

Features

- MetalHead Community
- Extreminal
- Empire Music Promotions
- Perma Frost
- Bloody News
- Irma
- Gramx
- Heavy Metal Webzine

Music

Reach Out

PRIMEPROPHECY@GMAIL.COM

